Release of Liability Owner

1. By and between, horse handlers herein after referred to as 'Runners' and _____ Herin after referred to as 'Owner'

I the owner, state that I am the owner of these

Registered Friesian Horse(s): _____

The above named horse are being handled by the runners and presented in a ring for the 2016 Friesian breed inspection / kuering. Runners may receive a donation of gratuity for their service. They are not receiving a salary, or a working pay. Runners shall perform all services in accordance with generally accepted professional standards. Runners cannot and do not guarantee the effect of the handling or that any particular results will be achieved, since this depends a great deal on the individual physical and mental ability of each horse.

2. Hold Harmless: During the time that the horse(s) is/are in custody of The Runners, Runners shall not be liable for any sickness, disease, death or injury which may be suffered by the horse(s) or any other cause of action whatsoever, arising out of or being connected in any way with to the handling of said horse(s), Owner agrees to hold harmless, indemnify and defend runners against, any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, judgments, orders, costs or expenses, which may in any way arise from or be in any way connected with Owners use of Runners service.

3 . Inherent Risks and Assumption of Risk. The Owner acknowledges there are inherent risks associated with equine activities such as described below, and hereby expressly assumes all risks associated with participating in such activities. The inherent risks include, but are not limited to the propensity of equines to behave in ways such as, running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them; the unpredictability of equine's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other animals; the limited availability of emergency medical care; and the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the animal or not acting within such participant's ability. Therefore Owner acknowledges that horses, by their very nature are unpredictable and subject to animal whim. Owner assumes ALL inherent Risks and Assumption of Risk in connection therewith and expressly waives any claims for any injury or loss to said animal arising there from or from how the horses are handled /presented.

4. I the owner understand that this document is only to be used for the event of the 2016 Friesian Horse breed Inspection at the Santa Rosa Fairgrounds, during the month of September.
